30 min $60

One hour lesson $100

1.5 hour full FlightScope,
Boditrak & FocusBand
session $150

What you can learn and improve will now be easier with the latest in technology.

- FlightScope xi Tour launch monitor
- Boditrak balance mat
- FocusBand

With the data gathered from FlightScope launch monitor, Boditrak balance mat and Focusband, Richard can analyse your club and ball flight, weight shift, and measure how well your are concentrating on every shot.

With this detailed information, Richard can tailor a program to improve your shot quality, direction or fit clubs to suit your individual needs.

Richard has completed a Mind Factor certification course with Karl Morris who has helped player like Graham McDowell and Louis Osthuizen both win Majors. With his expert knowledge Richard can develop strategies to help you play your best golf.
